Presiding Commissioner Lindquist attended a meeting of the Seneca Special Road District to discuss County Line Road in McDonald County. Commissioner Lindquist stated the west two miles of County Line Road were in disrepair and he did not feel the Seneca Road District was keeping the condition of the road to par.

Commissioner Bunch stated he met with Jennifer Shotwell and Patty Overman, HSTCC; and Robert Sherman, McDonald County Litter Control; Friday, November 30th. The meeting was training for Mr. Sherman as the new Litter Control supervisor.

County office holders met to discuss business of the county. In attendance were: full Commission; Jennifer Weber, Collector; Laura Pope, Assessor; Bill Dobbs, Prosecuting Attorney; Jennifer Mikeska, Circuit Clerk; Joye Helm, Treasurer; Kimberly Bell, County Clerk; Presiding Commissioner Elect, Bill Lant.

A motion was made by Commissioner Lindquist to issue a Court Order to Treasurer Joye Helm, to open a new fund, Courthouse Annex Development. All revenue collected from the Courthouse Annex, 502 Main Street and 504 Main Street, Pineville, MO., will be deposited into the Courthouse Annex Development Fund. Motion was seconded by Commissioner Holloway. Motion passed with a unanimous vote.

Commission traveled to Newton County Courthouse to meet with the Newton County Commission to discuss the conditions of County Line Road in McDonald County.
